

The Barry Vivian Walking Group Program – May, 2026

Please note: Walks this month start at 7.00am

Tuesday 5th May

Mermaid Reach of the Brisbane River

Meet on Amazons Place, Sinnamon Park. Discover the Mermaid Reach of the Brisbane River, Seventeen Mile Rocks, and some ghosts of Brisbane's early industrial history. Morning tea/coffee at Two Teaspoons in Goggs Rd. About 7.5km, some hills, urban roads, bush tracks, & bike paths, overall moderate. [At the Shed this morning: Normal activities, then Pub lunch at Finnigan's Chin at Keperra (12.30pm). Back well before then.]

Tuesday 12th May

South Pine River & Kingfisher Creek

Meet at the corner of James Cash Court and Cassowary St, Albany Creek. A walk beside the South Pine River, returning via Kingfisher Creek. Morning tea/coffee at French & Mor café at 2 Dawn Road in Albany Creek. About 6.5 km, some hills, bike tracks, bush tracks, and urban roads, reasonably easy to moderate. [At the Shed this morning: Shed Talk – Senior Driver Safety with Dept. of Transport officers (10.30am – 12 noon). Will be back well before then.]

Tuesday 19th May

Quail Trail & Goanna Trail

Meet at the Gap Creek Reserve picnic area, Gap Creek Road. Follow the Quail Trail, then west along Highwood Rd, and return to the picnic area via the Goanna Trail. Morning tea/coffee at Café Tara at The Gap Village. About 6 km, fire trails and some road. Hilly, with some steep sections, overall moderate to hard. [At the Shed this morning: Shed BBQ (I think!) (10.30 – 12.00) Should be back well before then.]

Tuesday 26th May

Paddington Heritage

Meet at Paddington Central, corner of Latrobe Terrace and Warmington Street. (Note: Woolworths car park has a 3 hour limit). Urban walk, discover some history, and the timber and tin streetscape of one of our oldest suburbs. Tea/coffee at a café back where we start. About 6 km, urban roads, some hills, overall moderate with Paddington's hills. [At the Shed this morning: Normal shed activities.]

Enjoy the walks! Danny Kennedy Ph. 0418 632 669